v.

Civil No. 97-2917 (DRD)

WAJIH I. RABAH

Defendant

ORDER

On July 30, 1998, Plaintiff filed with the Court and form of Process Receipt and Return indicating that the United States Marshall Service was unable to locate Defendant and that neighbors informed that he moved to Arizona without leaving a forwarding address. (Docket No. 4). More than two (2) years have now elapsed since that filing and there has been no activity in this case, indicating to the Court a lack of interest in prosecution on the Government's part. Accordingly, the Court hereby orders that judgment of dismissal without prejudice for lack of prosecution be entered. See Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 41(b).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
